

All India Movement for Seva, needs your help in supporting disaster relief activities in Japan.

On March 11, 2011, an earthquake of scale 8.9 and the subsequent tsunami in Japan caused unimaginable destruction and loss of life.

Please review the organizations listed below that are already working in the affected areas. Make your donations by credit card on-line by clicking here or by check and mail to: AIM for Seva, Box 639, Saylorsburg, PA 18353, (570) 402-1244. In the memo section, list your choice of receiving organization.

Bless yourself and bless those affected by this disaster. Your donation is 501(c)(3) tax deductible.

Save the Children.....Eiichi Sadamatsu of Save the children released a statement, saying: "We are extremely concerned for the welfare of children and their families who have been affected by the disaster. We stand ready to meet the needs of children who are always the most vulnerable in a disaster."

International Medical Corps is responding to the health needs of the disaster's victims. Nancy Aosse, President & CEO, International Medical Corps said in a statement: "We are putting together relief teams, as well as supplies, and are in contact with partners in Japan and other affected countries to assess needs and coordinate our activities."

The Japan Earthquake and Tsunami Relief Fund was launched at GlobalGiving.org to garner funds that will be given to a variety of relief organizations helping victims of the earthquake. It has already raised over $100,000, particularly from concerned Twitter users around the world. The project page explains: "We are working with International Medical Corps, Save the Children, and other organizations on the ground to provide support. Our partners on the ground are working hard to provide immediate relief."

Doctors Without Borders/Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) is sending two three-person teams to the Iwate and Miyagi prefectures in Japan.